13.1.2 Moulded tyres

All cars must be fitted with moulded tyres. Hand cutting or modification of the specified tread pattern is not permitted, unless otherwise permitted in the regional variation sporting regulations. Tyre cutting, i.e. the intentional modification of the tyre design is permitted for FIA approved tyres, but only in the service park and in accordance with the tyre manufacturer's instructions.

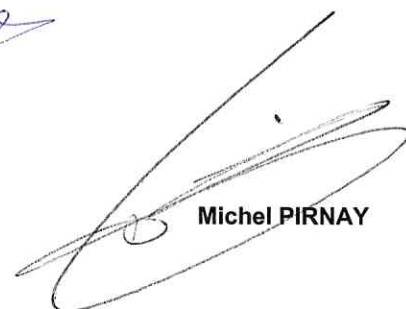

Clarification:

In accordance with the above article, manual cutting or modification of the specified structure of the tyre is not allowed.

Authorisation to the contrary in the regulations of the championship concerned refers to the events scheduled in the 2020 calendar that were listed for the FIA ERT 2020 Championship. (V1B - FIA European Rally Trophy) art. 13.7
